Candidate's name: _____ Evaluator's name: _____
 Semester: _____

Portfolio Rubrics

1. Content Principle – Rubrics related to relevant TESOL standards for teacher candidates

Based on the narrative and artifacts provided by the candidate for this principle, please first evaluate the extent to which the candidate has demonstrated the desired level of proficiency with respect to each of the following TESOL standards. For your evaluation, please use the following rubrics and report your scores in the table below:

1. Insufficient – i.e., you did not find evidence that the candidate has the necessary content knowledge to meet this standard.
3. Basic proficiency– i.e., you found evidence that the candidate has at least the minimum content knowledge needed to meet this standard.
4. Outstanding performance – i.e., you found evidence that the candidate has a solid background in this area and consistently demonstrates the behaviors and practices identified in this standard.

TESOL standard:	1	3	4
1.a Candidates demonstrate understanding of language as a system and demonstrate a high level of competence in helping ESOL students acquire and use English in listening, speaking, reading, and writing for social and academic purposes.
1.b Candidates understand and apply concepts, theories, research, and practice to facilitate the acquisition of a primary and a new language in and out of the classroom setting settings.
2.a Candidates know, understand and use the major concepts, principles, theories, and research related to the nature and role of culture in language development and academic achievement that support individual students' learning.
2.b Candidates know, understand and use knowledge of how cultural groups and students' cultural identities affect language learning and school achievement.

4. Pedagogy Principle – Common rubrics to evaluate Warner School proficiencies:

Prof.	Insufficient (1)	Basic proficiency (3)	Outstanding (4)	Score
4.1	Candidate's narrative and related documentation do not provide sufficient evidence that the candidate is aware of all relevant set(s) of pedagogy-related standards and/or knows enough innovative instructional strategies.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation indicate that the candidate is aware of relevant pedagogy-related standards, can identify a few instructional strategies consistent with those standards, and understands the potential uses, values, and limitations of these strategies for achieving specific learning goals.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation indicate that the candidate is aware of relevant pedagogy-related standards, knows several instructional strategies consistent with those standards, understands the potential uses, values and limitations of each of these strategies to achieve specific learning goals, and is aware of relevant research.
4.2	Candidate's narrative and related documentation do not provide sufficient evidence that the candidate is able to use a variety of innovative instructional strategies, as the examples provided are inappropriate, too limited and/or reveal serious misconceptions.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation provide evidence of a few occasions when the candidate has effectively used different innovative strategies to achieve learning goals consistent with relevant standards, and raise no major concern about the candidate's capability of doing so in other occasions.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation provide evidence that the candidate is able to effectively use a variety of innovative strategies to achieve learning goals consistent with relevant standards, and does so on a regular basis.
4.3	Candidate's narrative and related documentation do not provide sufficient evidence that the candidate is aware of the potential values and limitations of using technology in instruction.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation demonstrate that the candidate understands at least a few of the potential values and limitations of using technology in instruction.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation demonstrate that the candidate understands many of the potential values and limitations of using technology in instruction, recognizes equity issues connected with the uses of technology, and is aware of relevant research.
4.4	Candidate's narrative and related documentation do not provide sufficient evidence that the candidate is able to use technology to support student learning, as no example is provided or the examples provided are inappropriate, too limited and/or reveal serious misconceptions.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation provide evidence of at least one occasion when the candidate has used technology effectively to support student learning, raise no major concern about the candidate's capability of doing so in other occasions.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation provide evidence that the candidate is able to use technology effectively to support student learning, and does so on a regular basis.

5. Learning Community Principle – Common rubrics to evaluate Warner School proficiencies:

Prof.	Insufficient (1)	Basic proficiency (3)	Outstanding (4)	Score
5.1	Candidate’s narrative and related documentation identify some major gaps or misconceptions in the candidate’s understanding of student motivation.	Candidate’s narrative and related documentation demonstrate a basic understanding of what may encourage or hinder students’ motivation and engagement in learning.	Candidate’s narrative and related documentation demonstrate an in-depth understanding of what may encourage or hinder students’ motivation and engagement in learning, and awareness of relevant research literature.
5.2	Candidate’s narrative and related documentation raise concerns about the candidate’s capability of constructing a comfortable and safe classroom environment.	Candidate’s narrative and related documentation provide evidence that the candidate is able to construct a comfortable and safe classroom environment, at least most of the time and for most of the students in his/her class.	Candidate’s narrative and related documentation provide evidence that the candidate is able to construct a comfortable and safe classroom environment for all students in his/her class.
5.3	Candidate’s narrative and related documentation raise concerns about the candidate’s capability of creating a classroom environment that fosters students’ motivation and learning.	Candidate’s narrative and related documentation provide evidence that the candidate is able to create a classroom environment that fosters students’ motivation and learning, at least most of the times and for most of the students in his/her class.	Candidate’s narrative and related documentation provide evidence that the candidate is able to create a classroom environment that fosters students’ motivation and learning for all students and supports the creation of a community of learners.

6. Communication Principle – Common rubrics to evaluate Warner School proficiencies:

Prof.	Insufficient (1)	Basic proficiency (3)	Outstanding (4)	Score
6.1	Candidate's narrative and related documentation identify some major gaps or misconceptions in the candidate's understanding of the role of language in teaching and learning.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation demonstrate a basic understanding of the role of language in teaching and learning.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation demonstrate an in-depth understanding of the role of language in teaching and learning, and awareness of the relevant research.
6.2	Candidate's narrative and related documentation do not provide sufficient evidence that the candidate is aware of and proficient in a wide enough variety of modes and vehicles of communication.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation provide evidence that the candidate is familiar with and proficient in at least a few modes and vehicles of communication to support learning and inquiry, and can recognize the potential uses, values and limitations of each to achieve specific learning goals.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation indicate that the candidate is familiar with and proficient in several modes and vehicles of communication to support learning and inquiry, can recognize the potential uses, values and limitations of each to achieve specific learning goals, and is aware of relevant research.
6.3	Candidate's narrative and related documentation do not provide sufficient evidence that the candidate is able to use effectively a variety of modes of communication in the classroom, as the examples provided are inappropriate, too limited and/or reveal serious misconceptions.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation provide evidence that the candidate has used effectively a variety of modes of communication to make ideas accessible to all students and foster inquiry in at least one occasion, and raise no major concern about the candidate's capability of doing so in other occasions.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation provide evidence that the candidate is capable of using effectively a variety of modes of communication to make ideas accessible to all students and foster inquiry, and does so on a regular basis.
6.4	Candidate's narrative and related documentation do not provide sufficient evidence that the candidate is able to construct activities that incorporate a variety of texts, as the examples provided are inappropriate, too limited and/or reveal serious misconceptions.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation provide evidence of at least one occasion when the candidate has constructed activities that incorporated a variety of texts and facilitated all students' critical analysis of such texts, and raise no major concern about the candidate's capability of doing so in other occasions.	Candidate's narrative and related documentation provide evidence that the candidate is able to construct activities that incorporate a variety of texts and facilitate all students' critical analysis of such texts, and does so on a regular basis.

7. Planning Principle – Rubrics related to relevant TESOL standards for teacher candidates

Based on the narrative and artifacts provided by the candidate for this principle, please first evaluate the extent to which the candidate has demonstrated the desired level of proficiency with respect to each of the following TESOL standards. For your evaluation, please use the following rubrics and report your scores in the table:

1. Insufficient – i.e., you did not find evidence of the behaviors and practices described in this standard.
3. Basic proficiency– i.e., you found evidence that the candidate demonstrated the behaviors and practices described in this standard at least once.
4. Outstanding performance – i.e., you found evidence that the candidate demonstrates the behaviors and practices described in this standard consistently and with a high level of proficiency.

TESOL standards:	1	3	4
3.a Candidates know, understand and apply concept, research and best practices to plan classroom instruction in a supporting learning environment for ESL students. Candidates serve as effective English-language models, as they plan for multilevel classrooms with learners from diverse backgrounds using standards-based ESL and content curriculum.
