When the University of Rochester initially partnered with the Rochester City School District to create a plan to prevent East High School from closing, we understood the scope of the challenge. What we may have underestimated was the challenge—and the importance—of taking on curriculum. Hear our story and what we've learned so far about leadership practices that reveal complex interactions of curriculum, instruction, and situation.

A networking reception will begin at 5 p.m., and will be followed by a presentation and panel discussion at 5:15 p.m. and a Q&A session at 6:15 p.m. Participants are encouraged to bring a digital device. School and district administrators are encouraged to bring an aspiring leadership candidate for an opportunity to also learn more about the certificate programs in School Building Leadership and School District Leadership offered at the Warner School of Education.
