The Warner School of Education at the University of Rochester offers graduate programs in:

- Counseling
- Educational Leadership
- Education Policy
- Health Professions Education
- Higher Education
- Human Development
- Online Teaching
- Program Evaluation
- Teaching

Part-time, full-time, and non-matriculated study available. Grants and scholarships available to qualified applicants.

(585) 275-3950
www.warner.rochester.edu
admissions@warner.rochester.edu

K-12 School Leadership Information Session and Virtual Class Visit

Given the many challenges facing schools and communities today, there has never been a more critical time for high-quality K-12 school leadership preparation programs committed to equity, inclusion, and diversity.

We invite you to register for one of the Warner School’s upcoming information sessions to learn more about the K-12 school leadership hybrid online program and visit one of our fall online classes.

Join us for any or all of the following virtual events:

Thursday, Sept. 24, 4:30 p.m. (ET)
Class Session on Educational Leadership and Organizational Dynamics (with Dr. Andrea Cutt)

Tuesday, Oct. 20, 4:30 p.m. (ET)
Class Session on Curriculum and Instructional Leadership (with Dr. Holly Manaseri)

Wednesday, Nov. 18, 4:30 p.m. (ET)
Class Session on Human Resource Management (with Dr. Pat McCue)

Register for each event at:
https://apply.grad.rochester.edu/register/k12virtualclassvisit

For more information, please contact Holly Manaseri at hmanaseri@warner.rochester.edu.

For accommodation requests, please contact Mary Judge at mjudge@warner.rochester.edu.