The Warner School community is invited to join Anika Simone Johnson ‘18W (EdD), director of equity and inclusion at Warner, and guest speaker Kelly E. Kamish ‘18W (EdD), assistant director for programming, education, and outreach at the Center for Campus Life - Women and Gender, as they share the history and significance of LGBTQ+ pride and discuss ways to implement and support graduate students in classroom instruction, faculty-student communication, and peer support groups. Come join the discussion.

For additional information, contact Anika Simone Johnson at asjohnson@warner.rochester.edu.