Film STARS is an all girls science program where we connect science with real life, everyday issues. We explore relevant issues scientifically in order to answer our own questions and curiosities. The Film STARS of 2014 are young women from East middle and high school. We were curious about East High's perspective and experience with teen depression. That's why we chose to write and create a film about depression that we titled something we want you to always remember: YOU ARE NOT ALONE.
