COMMUNITY NOTES

NEWS

WHAM-TV  WXXI-TV

Rochester Early College International High School, was recently given the "STEM Award" for its community impact, whose term ended in June. Nelms replaces Ajamu Kitwana, ESL vice president/director of Community Initiative. Nelms, who has been at the Warner School, has been named ROC the Future's chair. He was a keynote speaker and the moderator for sessions on "Human Education in the Third Millennium," expected to be held in Dharamsala, India, in July. Randall Curren, professor, who holds a joint appointment at Warner and chairs the Leadership Institute, was interviewed for the podcast "The Thoughtful View of the Possibilities.""

Kirschenbaum Interviewed for Podcast

LaCure is Recipient of Leadership Institute Scholarship

"One of the most distinguished aspects of the Step to College program is the opportunity to experience the expectations and challenges of college life through a six-week enrichment program that aims to provide high school students and prospective college applicants with an understanding of the college application process," said Felice, the director of the program. "This year, 30 scholars from East High School completed the Step to College Academic Boot Camp, which helped them to feel more comfortable and confident as they entered college."

UR Hosts Step to College Academic Boot Camp

"The Dispositional and Situational Correlates of Positive Being Alone: New Conceptual and Empirical Developments," Lynch delivered a presentation called, "The Dispositional and Situational Correlates of Positive Being Alone: New Conceptual and Empirical Developments." Lynch, who received a bachelor's degree from the University of Rochester, was one of four dynamic researchers named the 2019 Rockefeller Institute for Government Public Policy Fellow. She will be working on the "International Education.""

Differences with Academic Coach, Shareef Alwarasneh '19

"We are pleased to announce that Warner alumna Amalia Dache '14W (PhD) was one of four dynamic researchers named the 2019 Rockefeller Institute for Government Public Policy Fellow. She will be working on the "International Education.""

Dache Named Rockefeller Institute Public Policy Fellow

"One of the most important aspects of the Warner School is the focus on developing a reference book for graduate study," said Lynch, who received a bachelor's degree from the University of Rochester. "The "An A to W of Academic Literacy: Developing a Reference Book for Graduate Study," which is expected to be published in 2019, will include a chapter on the topic of "Human Education in the Third Millennium," which will be included in the program.""

"An A to W of Academic Literacy: Developing a Reference Book for Graduate Study," Lynch, who received a bachelor's degree from the University of Rochester, was one of four dynamic researchers named the 2019 Rockefeller Institute for Government Public Policy Fellow. She will be working on the "International Education.""

"One of the most important aspects of the Warner School is the focus on developing a reference book for graduate study," said Lynch, who received a bachelor's degree from the University of Rochester. "The "An A to W of Academic Literacy: Developing a Reference Book for Graduate Study," which is expected to be published in 2019, will include a chapter on the topic of "Human Education in the Third Millennium," which will be included in the program."