The K-12 Digital Conversion Consortium held a "Kick-Off Workshop" on February 26. The workshop was attended by directors from across 20 K-12 school districts in the region that are engaging in district-wide transformations leveraging teams from school districts that are considering joining the consortium. The K-12 Digital Conversion Consortium is dedicated to providing professional development and resources to support schools in their digital transformation.

Transcultural/Transmedia Literacy Development.

Language. Han presented "Popular Game Character Analysis for ELLs' language teachers to consider tapping into the authentic language learning available in online she highlighted examples of the engaging digital Literacy practices and asked second/foreign

Jayne Lammers, associate professor, master's student Yunfan Gong, and doctoral students Lammers Gives Plenary Address; Gong, Altalouli, and Han Present at

Nathan Harris on Administrative Turnover in The

Marth Mock Featured in New

Shaun Nelms Featured in

East High Soul Food Throw Down Featured in the News

See All Upcoming Events

Wednesday Lunch Hour - Developing a K-12 Research Collaboration across Computer

April 17, 2019

Dignity for All Students Act (DASA) Training

AERA Reception

Design-Based Intervention Study

March 29, 2019

Dissertation Processes

Wednesday Lunch Hour - Plans vs. Reality: Warner Students Share Lessons Learned from Their

March 27, 2019

Research Proposals from a Cohort of Community Activists and Scholars

Educational Research

March 7, 2019

Craig Sellers, professor of clinical nursing and medicine/geriatrics and aging at the School of

ENGOAL

March 6, 2019

Students Through Peace Circles." Ecker presented "Children With Chronic Illness:  What Are

Consortium in Rochester in February. All three students won poster awards and received

Helfer, Maier, and Ecker Present at School Counselors' Consortium

Monday, April 8 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. This year the conference theme is pledge.

pledged their support to creating an inclusive society.

Spread the Word Inclusion movement, you will join thousands of people who have stop all types of discrimination against people with intellectual disabilities. By joining the

Over the past several years, you have stepped up and helped us Spread the Word to

Students Through Peace Circles." Ecker presented "Children With Chronic Illness:  What Are

Consortium in Rochester in February. All three students won poster awards and received

Helfer, Maier, and Ecker Present at School Counselors' Consortium

Monday, April 8 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. This year the conference theme is pledge.

pledged their support to creating an inclusive society.

Spread the Word Inclusion movement, you will join thousands of people who have stop all types of discrimination against people with intellectual disabilities. By joining the

Over the past several years, you have stepped up and helped us Spread the Word to

Students Through Peace Circles." Ecker presented "Children With Chronic Illness:  What Are

Consortium in Rochester in February. All three students won poster awards and received

Helfer, Maier, and Ecker Present at School Counselors' Consortium

Monday, April 8 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. This year the conference theme is pledge.

pledged their support to creating an inclusive society.

Spread the Word Inclusion movement, you will join thousands of people who have stop all types of discrimination against people with intellectual disabilities. By joining the

Over the past several years, you have stepped up and helped us Spread the Word to