ANNOUNCEMENTS

HAPPENINGS

News coverage of the Warner School's Annual Reading Campaign

David Hursh Discusses

David Hursh on Opting Out of Standardized Tests on

Each Student's Musical Journey

Wednesday Lunch Conversation: Looking Back and Moving Forward: Ideas for Supporting

April 22, 2020

Leaders for Equity Tuesday Talk Series: Leadership for Culturally Responsive Schools

March 31, 2020

Dignity for All Students Act (DASA) Training

March 27, 2020

Safe Schools Against Violence in Education (SAVE) Workshop

March 20, 2020

Confronting the Impact of Segregated Schooling Through Policy and Curricular Change

March 11, 2020

Wednesday Lunch Conversation: The Role of Education in Climate Change Adaptation

March 7, 2020

American Annals of the Deaf

Propositions: Toward a Vygotskian Framework for Deaf Pedagogy and Research" in the Doctoral student Michael Skyer published the invited article "The Bright Triad and Five learning opportunity presented by Lammers and her longtime collaborator, Alecia practices for literacy instruction, which they encountered during a teacher professional Teacher Professional Learning." This paper examines teachers' uptake of fanfiction Lammers also co-presented "Connecting Classroom and Online Communities Through Central Java, Indonesia.

on her recent Fulbright-funded research with Astuti in which Lammers shared initial Youth: Sharing With Our Community of Inquiry." This is the first conference presentation

Lammers and Astuti presented "Learning About the Digital Literacies of Indonesian

Gajah Mada and is featured on the center's website.

(Clevedon, UK: Multilingual Matters, 2018), a book coedited by Mary Jane Curry, Dream," which cites Finnigan's testimony.

Kara Finnigan, professor, was part of a panel that testified in June 2019 to the New needs, given that we know of their already high stress levels.

and two other researchers at the University's Mt. Hope Family Center, is the first to bachelor's degree in political science this year. Awarded a Fifth Year in Teaching the University of Rochester alumni community, offer insights into current student life and

Based Interventions Within a Restorative Framework Minimizes Racially Disparate

Determination Theory (SDT)" Lastly, Isabel Bevier won for "Implementing Mindfulness-

Improving Students' Mental Health." Alek Suter won for "Mindful Programming For an urban school and eventually help to reform the U.S. public education system.

Finnigan Cited in U.S. Commission on Civil Rights Report

In February, students celebrated Warner's first-time "I Heart Warner" event in LeChase

Hall, where they shared their love of all things Warner and wrote notes to recent students. For the second straight year, the event included a "What Are You Reading?

Register now for the 41st Annual Applied Linguistics Winter Conference that will be at

Finger Lakes. Please RSVP by Monday, March 9 to Amanda Vallone

join us for food, drinks, and music. Network and socialize with members of Warner's

EVENT: Warner's Annual Black Tie Social

longer want, please contact Julia Postler at

Call for Swimsuit Donations for Horizons at Warner

'20, president of the Students' Association.

Dache will join Mercedes Ramirez-Fernandez, chief diversity officer, and local leaders community. Following the keynote address, education, particularly as they relate to a looks at disparities in access to higher nationally recognized scholar whose work

The University's

Diversity Conference

Address at the University's Annual

Warner Alumna to Give Keynote

Argiropoulos, and Linda Gillette-Smith, as well as Carol St. George, associate

Mackenzie Maloney, Ellie Schwoebel, Kathryn Hertzog, Jihan Ayesh, Karrie

Based Interventions Within a Restorative Framework Minimizes Racially Disparate

Determination Theory (SDT)" Lastly, Isabel Bevier won for "Implementing Mindfulness-

Improving Students' Mental Health." Alek Suter won for "Mindful Programming For an urban school and eventually help to reform the U.S. public education system.

Finnigan Cited in U.S. Commission on Civil Rights Report

In February, students celebrated Warner's first-time "I Heart Warner" event in LeChase

Hall, where they shared their love of all things Warner and wrote notes to recent

students. For the second straight year, the event included a "What Are You Reading?

Register now for the 41st Annual Applied Linguistics Winter Conference that will be at

Finger Lakes. Please RSVP by Monday, March 9 to Amanda Vallone

join us for food, drinks, and music. Network and socialize with members of Warner's

EVENT: Warner's Annual Black Tie Social

longer want, please contact Julia Postler at

Call for Swimsuit Donations for Horizons at Warner

'20, president of the Students' Association.

Dache will join Mercedes Ramirez-Fernandez, chief diversity officer, and local leaders community. Following the keynote address,