2015-16 Doctoral Conference Presentation Awards
(for Full-time Warner Doctoral Students)

Presenting at conferences plays an important role in advancing the academic and research careers of our doctoral students as well as increasing the Warner School’s national visibility. To support this endeavor, Warner School has a program to support full-time doctoral students’ presentations at professional conferences. Qualified doctoral students in the Warner School may apply for these competitive awards which are intended to provide partial reimbursement for conference travel and related expenses. Determination of the number and amounts of these awards is contingent on the funds available for this program each year. Awards normally will be in the $200-500 range per presentation. Multiple presentation applications are allowed, but the total awarded may be limited by the total funds available for all applications.

Eligibility Requirements. Applicants for this funding must meet the following conditions:

- Be currently registered as a full-time Warner School doctoral student.
- Have formally submitted a proposal to present at a national conference to occur in the current fiscal year.
- Have completed the application procedures (below) by the deadline of December 4, 2015. Late applications will be considered only if funds are still available.

Application Procedures. Information and application forms are available on the Warner School Website (http://www.rochester.edu/Warner/studentservices/forms/conf_presentation.doc). Applicants must submit the following materials by the application deadline (please do a separate application for each conference they are proposing to attend):

1. The application form(s).
2. A copy of the proposal submitted for the conference presentation and supporting statements.
3. A formal acceptance notice from the conference if already accepted. If your program proposal is not formally accepted at the time of application submission, acceptance notification must be submitted as soon as received. If your program proposal is not accepted, the preliminary award will be withdrawn.

Application materials must be submitted to Claire Urbanowicz in the Student Services Office, LeChase 254, 273-2927 (curbanowicz@warner.rochester.edu). Questions regarding this program may be addressed to Logan Hazen, LeChase 418, 275-1007 (lhazen@warner.rochester.edu).
Evaluation of Applications and Fund Distribution. The awards committee (comprised of faculty representing each of Warner’s three program areas) will evaluate applications that meet the eligibility requirements noted above, utilizing a combination of the following criteria:

- The quality of the conference and thus its strategic value for increasing the Warner School’s and the applicant’s visibility.
- The potential value of participating in the conference for the applicant, given his/her career goals and stage in their program, and the role to be played by the applicant in the presentation.
- The applicant’s need for this financial support (full-time doctoral students on assistantships will be given priority; students who have/could be supported by other sources – pre-dissertation and dissertation fellowship grants, their home institution/job, etc. – will be given less priority). Doctoral students serving as Visiting Assistant Professors are not eligible for these awards.
- The extent to which the award will allow Warner to maximize the impact of the limited funds.

Awards will be announced promptly following final committee decisions, but no later than December 20, 2015. In cases where the conference proposal has not yet been accepted by the time of the award, the award will be contingent to receiving such acceptance, and will be forfeited if the conference proposal is ultimately rejected. Late applications may be considered, but only if there are funds remaining in the DCPA account and generally will be at a reduced amount compared to on-time applications.

Requests for reimbursement need to be submitted to Tracy Korts, Warner School Finance Office, LeChase 228 preferably within two weeks from the end of the conference, but no later than May 16, 2016. A completed Internal Revenue Service W-9 form must be submitted with reimbursement requests (http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/fw9.pdf). Late requests for reimbursement will not be honored because of the university fiscal year submission deadlines.
